

HOME HAPPENINGS

—Good resolutions are due.

—Christmas week weather much mixed.

—Christmas and New Year's in 1916 fall on Monday.

—The Canfield public schools reopen next Monday morning.

—The first meeting of the new village council will be held next Monday night.

—The Dispatch wishes everybody a New Year full of peace, happiness and prosperity.

—Twin daughters were born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schaefer who reside on East Main street.

—Local rural mail carriers will count and weigh all mail handled by them during the month of January.

—M. F. Sheridan has succeeded H. J. Metzler as foreman of the Canfield section of the Niles & Lisbon railroad.

—Weather conditions Christmas day were most disagreeable, rain falling for several hours, followed by a snow storm.

—Street Commissioner H. L. Sonnen-decker had the snow plow out Wednesday morning for the first time this season.

—After a chase of more than two hours William Webb caught a coon Christmas morning that weighed nearly 17 pounds.

—A special meeting of Argus Masonic lodge was held Tuesday night when the E. A. degree was conferred upon a candidate.

—The C. W. B. M. of the Christian church will meet at the home of Mrs. E. J. Calvin next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, eastern time.

—Manager Fred Pitch of the local basketball team has scheduled games for each Saturday night during January except New Year's night.

—The Canfield Volunteer Fire Department will give its second annual ball in town hall Friday evening and a general invitation is extended.

—Tuesday evening Miss Pearl Wilson and Wilbur and Earl Wilson pleasantly entertained a company of friends at their home on the Salem road.

—On New Year's day the local post-office will be closed from 9:15 a. m. until 4:45 p. m., central time. There will be no delivery by rural carriers.

—F. A. Morris has placed his drug store on a "cut rate" basis and his announcement in today's Dispatch will be read with interest by careful buyers.

—Most of Canfield's stores will be closed all day Saturday—New Year's day—so that it will be necessary to do buying for Saturday and Sunday on Friday.

—W. J. Dickson and F. L. Crockett, elected members of the village board of education, have qualified and will report for duty next Monday evening when the board meets for reorganization.

—Christmas entertainments at the Methodist and Presbyterian churches Christmas Eve and at the Christian church Sunday morning were largely attended and the excellent programs presented were much enjoyed.

—The Canfield Basketball Club played its first game Christmas night with the Mahonings of Youngstown and won by a score of 26 to 24. The game was fast from start to finish and a large crowd witnessed the sport.

—A meeting of citizens interested in pushing Canfield to the front will be held in town hall next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, central time. It is hoped there will be a large attendance as important matters are to be discussed.

—James Finnegan, whose home south of the village was destroyed by fire a few weeks since, has awarded the contract to A. Supply to build a new house for him on the site of the old one, work to be started as early in the spring as possible.

—Freight traffic is so heavy on the Niles & Lisbon branch of the Erie that freight trains were operated on Christmas much the same as on other days. As a rule in past year freight crews have been permitted to lay off and spend Christmas at home.

CHURCH CHIMES

ISLAND

Dec. 29—A gloom was cast over this community Monday morning when it was announced that the spirit of Mrs. Sadie Showalter, wife of Harry Showalter, had taken its flight. The sad news was not unexpected, however, as she had been hovering between life and death for several days. Everything was done by loving hands to save her life but the effort was vain and she passed peacefully away about 10 o'clock Sunday night. Mrs. Showalter was a daughter of the late David L. and Mrs. Salome Weaver and was born in Green township August 24, 1889, consequently was aged 26 years, 4 months and 2 days. She leaves a sorrowing husband a baby girl a week old, her mother, one brother, Edwin, and four sisters, Mrs. Ella Horst, Agnes, Malissa and Ida and many friends to mourn her untimely death. Funeral services were held Wednesday forenoon at the white Mennonite church, of which she was a faithful member, conducted by her pastor, Rev. Harvey Horst, assisted by Bishop Henry Hursh of Orrville. Burial in the church cemetery.

Relatives and friends from a distance who attended Mrs. Showalter's funeral were Daniel Showalter and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Iseal Showalter and son Howard and Mrs. Annie Burkholder of Dayton, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Webster Rhodes, Miss Maggie Rohrer, Mrs. Henry Hursh and Ezra Good of Orrville.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Martin of Dalton spent Christmas here with their son Amos and family.

Isaac Brubaker and family of Columbiana spent Sunday with his brother Aaron and M. M. Ziegler and wife and Jonas Wisler and family with Clarence Wisler and family.

Mrs. Mattie Wisler called on Mrs. Sarah Klingensmith Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Barbara Detrow is ill with pneumonia.

Ziegler and Wisler will move back to the farm Jan. 5.

Jacob Weaver was in Salem one day recently.

Alfred Rhodes is sick.

Only a few more days left to make that resolution.

The people of this locality were shocked Monday to hear of the sudden demise of Mrs. Hannah Martin of East Lewistown. She had many friends here, having been a resident of this place several years ago.

Here's wishing The Dispatch and its many readers a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

LOSS PROMPTLY ADJUSTED

Canfield, Ohio, Dec. 29, 1915.

To the Public—I have received from the Ohio Farmers Insurance Co. through their agent, C. F. Matteson, a draft for $1,400, in full payment for the loss on my house and furniture which occurred Nov. 23. The adjustment and payment of my loss certainly is all I could ask and I take pleasure in recommending the Ohio Farmers Insurance Co. to all who desire fair dealing and prompt payment when they are unfortunate in sustaining such a loss as I did in the burning of my home and contents.

Yours very truly,
J. R. FINNEGAN.

Timely Hint on Over-Eating.

Big dinners cause disturbed digestion. The stomach and bowels should not be clogged with undigested poisonous waste matter. Foley's Cathartic Tablets relieve distress after eating, stop belching, banish bloating and gas, soothe the stomach, regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach and tone up the liver. F. A. Morris.—Adv.

The Family Honor.

At a banquet of the ministers of New York, Mr. Johnston of the Morris-anis church told this story:

"One of the members of my church has installed into his family the belief that the collection is a vitally important part of the service.

"Consequently his little boy Thomas never comes to church without his contribution.

"One Sunday, as the elders began to take up the collection at the morning service, Thomas looked along the pew to see if the various members of the family were provided with a contribution.

"Noticing a guest of his sister's empty-handed, he whispered:

"Where's your money?"

"I have none," was the reply.

"The time was short and the necessity great. In a flash the little fellow met the emergency by saying:

"Here—take mine. That'll pay for you and I'll get under the seat."

"And, flinging his own coin into her lap, he disappeared under the pew, where he remained until the elder had gone by—and the reputation of the family was saved."

OH, FAR MORE.

Mr. Busby, rich but recently—And when I was in Switzerland, I saw Lake Geneva and Lake Lemman.

Mr. Wise—"But are not those names synonymous?"

Mr. B—"Why—er—yes, of course. But are you aware, my dear sir, that Lake Geneva is by far the more synonymous of the two?"

It All Depends.

When James A. Garfield was president of Oberlin college, a man brought for entrance as a student his son, for whom he wished a shorter course than the regular one.

"The boy can never take all that in," said the father. "He wants to get through quicker. Can you arrange it for him?"

"Oh, yes," said Mr. Garfield. "He can take a short course; it all depends on what you want of him. When God wants to make an oak He takes a hundred years, but He takes only two months to make a squash."

A Shrewd Old Man.

"You're an old married man. What do you do when your wife begins to scold?"

"Encourage her. I talk back—discreetly, of course. I say tantalizing things, make foolish excuses, I stammer and get husky."

"But doesn't that make her a good deal madder?"

"Of course it does. That's the intention. I want her to get so mad that she won't have any voice left to ask me for money."

"Gee, I wonder if I'll ever get as hardened as that?"

A Generous Offer.

A family living in South Chicago found a good deal of cream on a bottle of milk which had been standing over night and when the driver called in the morning the pleased servant held it up to the light and said: "Look here, I have never seen anything like this before on my milk."

The man looked at it for a moment, scratched his head and replied: "Well, I don't know what's the matter, but you can throw it out and I'll give you a fresh bottle in its place."
